Did you know individuals caring for other families' children more than 10 hours a week on a regular basis in on-base quarters must be licensed by the installation commander?

The exceptions are:

1. Individuals who occasionally provide care for a friend or neighbor.
2. Teenagers doing evening or weekend baby-sitting for families in the parents home.
3. Care provided in the parents' own home.
4. Parent cooperatives where one of the parents provides supervision for other parents' children and no funds are involved.
5. Temporary full-time care of a child during a parent's absence for temporary duty or deployment by the person listed on the AF Form 357, Family Care Plan.

"The Family Child Care program accepts individuals with chronic health problems, including HIV-positive individuals, for care and employment."
