Wateree is located approximately 35 miles north of Shaw AFB. It is 9 miles northwest of Camden on SC 97.

~ Nearby Points of Interest ~

Camden - (pop. 6,676). Established in 1732, Camden is the oldest inland city in South Carolina and was the major British garrison of Lord Cornwallis. The battles of Hobkirk Hill and Camden were fought in the vicinity and 12 other Revolutionary War battles took place nearby. Restorations and reconstructions include fort sites, log cabins and 18th and 19th century homes.

Springdale Race Course - The world famous "Colonial Cup," one of the nation's richest steeplechase races is held here in late fall. The "Carolina Cup," a day of steeplechase and flat racing, takes place around Easter.

Wateree Recreation Area

U.S. AIR FORCE Recreational Facility

Wateree Recreation Area is located in the heart of South Carolina's Olde English District, where the three large river systems, Pee-Dee, Catawba-Wateree and Broad, that once brought in settlers, now lure campers, picnickers and fishermen alike!

This 14,000-acre hydroelectric impoundment has a 190-mile shoreline. Situated on a peninsula of 25 pristine wooded acres, Wateree Recreation Area is designed for the recreational enjoyment of military members and their families.
